GENRE: Autobiography

- Written by a person about his or her own life.
- Tells important information about the person's life.

  It tells how the person talks, feels, and thinks about things.
- The events are usually told chronologically, or in the order that they happened.
- May be the story of a person's whole life or may only be about part of a person's life.
- Usually about the most important events in a person's life.