

Personal Narrative Story Ideas

- Think about a family friend or relation that you admire. It should be someone who is a role model for you. Think of a time when they did something that showed their kindness or other good qualities.
- Think about a time when you had to do something you didn't really want to do. It could be a chore, a family day, or something in school. Write about one time when you were surprised at how much fun you had doing this.
- Think about a time you did something special with a brother, sister, family member, or friend. Sharing this event made you realize how close you were. Write about what made this time special.
- Think about a time you were surprised about something that happened to you. It could be a happy surprise or a disappointment. Write about the event.
- Think about a time you succeeded at something that was hard for you to do. It could be something you finally learned how to do at school or in a game. It could also be a new way of behaving at home. Write about what happened the day you changed.
- Write about a time when you made a special gift for someone in your family or for a friend. How did you know what they would like? How did you make the gift? What was the person's reaction? Write a story about this event.
- Your family celebrates special events such as birthdays, holidays, or other special times. Choose one family event and write a story about it.
- You have been on many field trips while at school. Choose one and tell a story about what happened on that trip.
- You have learned many things since you started school. Tell a story about one thing you learned in Kindergarten that you have used this year.
- Think about a day when nothing went right. It could have been anywhere. It might have been at home or at school. Write a story about this bad experience.
